1 Michael Angus
Angus & Company, Toronto (416) 537-4104 or www.angusandcompany.com
“My designs feature airy spaces with a mix of formal antiques and casual, comfortable furniture. Timeless and classic.”

2 Connie Braemer
Connie Braemer Design, Toronto (416) 960-8556
“I like clean lines with a lot of function built in. I use warm and natural materials in a simple and contemporary way.”

3 Marieke Burgers
MBI Interiors, Vancouver (604) 926-6058 or www.rbaarchitects.com
“I select natural materials of high quality and apply simple, pared-down detailing. My specialty is finishing a house’s architectural features.”

4 Theresa Casey
Casey Design Group, Toronto (416) 532-9242 or www.caseydesignplan.com
“Homeowners who know themselves make their own mark; I just help them get there by encouraging risks, innovation and individuality.”

5 Alex Chapman
Chapman Design Group, Toronto (416) 597-1576 or www.designcdg.com
“Our style is fun, colourful and user-aware. Although our portfolio is broad, there is a base of fairly classic and contemporary style. We work in a variety of destinations and climates.”

6 Elaine Cecconi & Anna Simone
Cecconi Simone, Toronto (416) 588-5900 or www.cecconisimone.com
“Our designs are clean and contemporary. Our work is timeless, not trendy. Palettes are neutral and calming; we use colour sparingly through natural materials and accents.”

7 Julie Charbonneau
De Poitiers, Montreal (514) 845-5050
“I adapt the classics of French design to contemporary lifestyles. I mix old and new and set different materials, tones and textures side by side.”

8 Karen Cole & Melody Duron
ColeDuron Interior Design, Toronto (416) 482-2552 and (416) 975-5383
“Our look is classic with an edge. We think a home should be luxurious, comfortable and practical, and, most importantly, it should reflect the personality of the owner.”
